COURT'S CHARGE TO THE GRAND JURORS

PARTICULARLY FORCEFUL MESSAGE WAS DELIVERED BY JUDGE GARY

COURT HOURS

Will Convene at 9:30 and Recess From 1:30 to 3—Will End Each Evening at 6 O'clock.

The spring term of the court of general sessions for Anderson County was convened yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, with Judge Frank B. Gary of Abbeville, presiding. It was nearly 11 o'clock before the court had been organized, the delay being caused by the tardiness of one of the grand jurors. When this man arrived Mr. James R. Anderson was appointed foreman of the tribunal and the wheels of the court machinery were set in motion.

The court's charge to the grand jury was a particularly strong one. As this was the first time some of the members had been called as grand jurors, the court took occasion to remind them of the responsibility that rests upon them. He stated that the grand jury was in charge of the fiscal affairs of Anderson County and directors of the county for the year 1915. He pointed out to them that much of the responsibility for observance of the law rested upon their shoulders, and that it was their duty to present for prosecution not only those defendants named in warrants handed them by the solicitor but any violator of the law against whom they had evidence.

Judge Gary admonished the grand jurors that the affairs of the county were in their keeping and that if any employee of the county was not doing his duty it is their business to see that he does. He advised the grand jury to make frequent and thorough examination of the books of the county officials, to give proper attention to the roads of the county and to the poor, who have no other source to look to but the grand jury. He reminded them that the public schools of the county were in their care and cautioned them to see that the affairs of these institutions are always properly conducted.

The court suggested to the grand jury that they ask the county delegation to have enacted the necessary legislation providing for the drawing of a panel of 20 or more taxmen for grand jury duty and the selection of the first 18 of these who reported for duty when court convened. This suggestion was prompted by the delay due to the tardiness of one of the grand jurors.

Judge Gary stressed the vital importance of enforcement of the law against the sale of blind tiger whiskey and the carrying of pistols, as these two sins are responsible for more lawlessness than any other agents that could be found.

Upon the convening of court the following taxmen were excused: J. W. Sanders, J. N. Owens, John B. Adger, J. C. Busby, W. C. King and S. C. Bean. To take the place of these and provide other jurors, an extra venire was ordered drawn.

Judge Gary announced that the hours of court would be from 9:30 a. m. to 1:30 p. m. and from 3 p. m. to 6 p. m.

ERSKINE COLLEGE

On last Friday evening the 34th semi-annual celebration of the Philomathean Literary Society was held in the Erskine auditorium. The student body enjoyed the first reception of the new year at the Woman's College on last Saturday morning.

Considerable work has recently been done on the campus. Many of the great oaks, which are the pride of the campus, have been trimmed, and new ones set out. The college plans to make extensive improvements in the near future.

Mr. Oates Stroup, a former Erskine student, spent the week-end in town. The Y. M. C. A. has just purchased a Stein piano. This will be used in devotional exercises and should add interest to the meetings.

Keep the Children Bright and Happy

Happy youngsters must be healthy. The digestive organs of children get out of order as readily as do those of their elders, and the result is equally distressing. When the bowels are clogged with an accumulation of refuse from the stomach the child naturally becomes cross and fretful from the discomfort, and is often punished for temper when medical attention is really what is needed.

The next time your child is cross and unhappy, without apparent reason, try giving it a mild laxative. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a mild, pleasant tasting combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, and is especially recommended for children because of its freedom from all opiate or narcotic drugs and its gentle action. It is sold in drug stores everywhere. A free trial bottle can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 452 Washington St., Monticello, Ills.

STARR

Since the holidays our school is getting down to hard work. Students and faculty are working together and are trying to do better this term than last.

The School Improvement association is in a flourishing condition, and is doing a great deal toward the repairing of the school building. Window shades, globes and maps have been bought, and the roof has been painted by Messrs. Hannah and Harris. There is some mention of a flag being raised above the roof. This will add extensively to the appearance of the building.

Dr. and Mrs. Land entertained Misses Shirley, Goode and Halford of the teaching corps, last Wednesday evening.

The tenth and eleventh grades are very sorry to give up Misses Mildred and Alva Hodges who have moved to Deleville, Va.

Rev. W. B. Hawkins has moved back to his home. We are glad to have Albert in school with us again. We are also glad to have Annie Verone who has been attending the Iva High School.

The principals of Iva, Aubreville, Lowndesville and Starr High Schools have organized a oratorical and athletic association, the name of which is "The Savannah Oratorical and Athletic association."

The Trihrod Literary society was reorganized Friday afternoon. The following officers were installed: Mr. Hugh Smith, president; Miss Edna Herron, vice president; Miss Carrie Bowie, secretary; Miss Eva Herrold, librarian; Misses Loraine Pruitt and Mabel Jones, reporting critics.

Miss Stewart, the primary teacher has added much to the appearance and comfort of her room by means of a new stove pipe.

Miss Erskine and her pupils have about completed a globe which they have been working on for quite a while.

The ball for the girls basket ball team which is to take part in the association, has been ordered.

The boys are beginning to play base ball. We hope that practice will make perfect for we want the championship of this association.

Heavy Meat Eaters Have Slow Kidneys

Eat less meat if you feel Back-achy or have Bladder trouble.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become overworked from the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a smarting of voiding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

A PERSONAL STATEMENT
There are so-called "honey and tar" preparations that cost the dealer half as much but sell at the same price as the original and genuine Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. We never offer these imitations and substitutes. We know you will buy Foley's whenever you need a cough syrup if you once use it. People come long distances for the true FOLEY'S—over thirty years the leading remedy for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, bronchial and laryngeal coughs.

BRYAN REPLIES TO GERMANY'S PROTEST

DOES NOT CONSIDER HYDRO-AEROPLANES VESSELS OF WAR

CAN ONLY BE USED IN AIR

Germany Says They Must Be Regarded as War Vessels and Delivery Should Be Stopped.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—In reply to Germany's protest against the building of hydro-aeroplanes by American manufacturers for England and Russia, Secretary Bryan has informed the German ambassador that the State department does not concur in the contention that such craft are vessels of war "whose delivery to belligerent States by neutrals should be stopped." The correspondence upon the subject was made public today by Mr. Bryan. On January 19, Count von Bernstorff wrote the secretary of State, saying hydro-aeroplanes were being sold to the allies, detailing the companies by which the parts were built and added:

"There is no doubt that hydro-aeroplanes must be regarded as war vessels whose delivery to belligerent States by neutrals should be stopped under article 8 of the 13th convention of the second Hague conference of October 18, 1907. Hydro-aeroplanes are not mentioned by name in the convention simply because there was none in 1907, at the time of the conference. "On the supposition that hydro-aeroplanes are delivered to belligerents against the wishes of the government of the United States, I have the honor to bring the foregoing to your excellency's kind knowledge."

Secretary Bryan replied under date of January 29 as follows: "Excellency: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your excellency's note of the 19th instant, and in reply have to inform you that the statements contained in your excellency's note have received my careful consideration in view of the earnest purpose of this government to perform every duty which is imposed upon it as a neutral by treaty stipulation and international law.

"The essential statement in your note, which implies an obligation on the part of this government to interfere in the sale and delivery of hydro-aeroplanes to belligerent powers is:

"There is no doubt that hydro-aeroplanes must be regarded as war vessels whose delivery to belligerent States by neutrals should be stopped under article 8 of the 13th convention of the second Hague conference of October 18, 1907."

"As to this assertion of the character of hydro-aeroplanes, I submit the following comments: The fact that a hydro-aeroplane is fitted with apparatus to rise from and alight upon the sea does not in my opinion give it the character of a vessel any more than the wheels attached to an aeroplane fitting it to rise from and alight upon land give the latter the character of a land vehicle. Both the hydro-aeroplane and the aero-aeroplane are essentially aircraft; as an aid in military operations they can only be used in the air; the fact that one starts its flight from the surface of the sea and the other from the land is a mere incident which in no way affects their aerial character.

"In view of these facts I must dissent from your excellency's assertion that 'there is no doubt that hydro-aeroplanes must be regarded as war vessels,' and consequently I do not regard the obligations imposed by treaty or by the accepted rules of international law applicable to aircraft of any sort.

"In this connection I further call your excellency's attention that, according to the latest advice received by this department, the German imperial government include 'balloons and flying machines and their component parts in the list of conditional contraband, and that in the Imperial Prize ordinance, drafted September 30, 1909, and issued in the Reichs-Gesetzblatt on August 3, 1915, appear as conditional contraband 'airships and flying machines' (article 23, section 8). It thus appears that the imperial government have placed and retain aircraft of all descriptions in the class of conditional contraband, for which no special treatment involving neutral duty, is so far as I am advised, provided by any treaty to which the United States is a signatory or adhering power.

"As in the views of this department the provisions of convention XIII of the second Hague conference do not apply to hydro-aeroplanes, I do not consider it necessary to discuss the questions as to whether those provisions are in force during the present war.

"Accept, excellency, the renewed assurances of my highest consideration."
"W. J. BRYAN."

WINTER DOUBLES WORK

In summer the work of eliminating poisons and acids from the blood is helped by perspiration. In cold weather, with little but door work or exercise to cause sweating, the kidneys have to do double work. Foley Kidney Pills help overworked, weak and diseased kidneys to filter and cast out of the blood the waste matter that causes pains in sides or back, rheumatism, lumbago, stiffness of joints, sore muscles and other ills resulting from improper elimination.

Wishing for the Past.
I wish to have lived in the days of yore,
When the wildwood stretched from shore to shore
When the panther's cry and the black bear's roar
Could be heard at night from the cabin's door.
I wish it had been permitted me
To be with Marion on Congaree,
To tent beneath the Greenwood tree,
And be a forrester, bold and free.
I wish that by some magic wand
Every rough clad member of his band
Could for one moment rise and stand.
I wish so much to see a man.
I wish and wish; I know not why
Sometimes I laugh. Sometimes I cry.
Sometimes I almost wish to die
Because those days have all gone by.
